

Clouds
By Milo Gaffney
ACMF National Song Competition 2016

She wrote a song, about the lover that she never had,
She wrote a song about the good times that were bad,
She wrote a song, about a letter that was never written,
That she is waiting to be given some meaning.

But now shes walking on clouds, And she'll be alright,
Cause she is running, running with the rest of us,
And it's been so long, it's been so long, since she has fallen to the ground,
Cause now she's walking on clouds, with the rest of us

She wrote a song, about a field she had never seen,
And how she had touched the grass that had never been,
she's got a twisted imagination, and she won't be happy with what she's got,
cause the clouds will never be good enough till she is on top,

But now shes walking on clouds, And she'll be alright,
Cause she is running, running with the rest of us,
And it's been so long, it's been so long, since she has fallen to the ground,
Cause now she's walking on clouds, with the rest of us

But please don't pull her back down,
I'm hoping she will come around,
And see that she's alright,
Cause she's walking on the clouds that are way up high,

She wrote a song, about a field she had never seen,
And how she had touched the grass that had never been,
she's got a twisted imagination, and she won't be happy with what she's got,
cause the clouds will never be good enough till she is on top,

But now shes walking on clouds, And she'll be alright,
Cause she is running, running with the rest of us,
And it's been so long, it's been so long, since she has fallen to the ground,
Cause now she's walking on clouds, with the rest of us
