

Dream Lady
By Indigo King
ACMF National Songwriting Competition 2017

Intro (Chorus)

Appreciative gaze
Has a maze of a brain
A broken heart that aches at the sound of your name
But she stands up
Tall and steady
She's small but she's ready
For the start of
Her new beginning
Of something bigger...
Cos she's bigger than you

Verse 1:

So there's this lady
She doesn't get it right every time but oh boy, oh boy does she try
So there's this lady
She never sits in her sad and never lets anyone make her mad

Chorus:

Appreciative gaze
Has a maze of a brain
A broken heart that aches at the sound of his name
But she stands up
Tall and steady
She's small but she's ready
For the start of
Her new beginning
Of something bigger...
Cos she's bigger than you

Bridge (Outro)

She's the her I want to be
The only one I see
She's dream, lady.
She's the way I want to talk
Man, I want that strong walk
Dream lady, dream lady.
She's getting closer; my mum wants to know her
I can see her. I can feel her dreams.
She finds comfort in discomfort
That's the way to be
Dream Lady
Cos she's, cos she's, bigger than you.
