

NOTHIN' IN THE COUNTRY

by Remy Grunden

There's a fire burning at my feet
I can see the sun behind the trees
Oh, the wind is messing up my hair
Birds are flying everywhere.
Imma keep goin' don't ask how
Nothing gonna stop me, no not now
Nothin' in the world gonna get me down
Nothin' in the country, no not now.
I can sleep beneath the starry sky,
Or maybe they're just fireflies
Oh, the moonlight shines a silver grey
I won't ever loose my way.
Imma keep goin' don't ask how
Nothin' gonna stop me, no not now
Nothin' in the world gonna get me down
Nothin' in the country, no not now.
One day the world, the world will fall
And when it does so will we all
So, why not enjoy it while we can.
While we can.
There's a fire burning at my feet
I can see the sun behind the trees
Nothin' in the world gonna get me down
Nothin' in the country, no not now.
