I've travelled back in time
I don't know where you've been
Been back and forth all night
In hope I'll find you again

Now I'm stuck in the middle of my life
I don't know whether this is right should I turn away from the truth
I'm holding back but I wanna fight
I see your face day and night
Tell me what do I do

I see pictures of you
And I keep one beside me to
You look so beautiful
You were so young
What happened was so wrong
Josie I wish I could have known you

I think I'm losing my mind
These memories wont leave
All alone in the night
Trying to hide my fear

Now I'm stuck in the middle of my life
I don't know whether this is right should I turn away from the truth
I'm holding back but I wanna fight
I see your face day and night
Tell me what do I do

I see pictures of you
And I keep one beside me to
You look so beautiful
You were so young
What happened was so wrong
Josie I wish I could have known you

Now I'm stuck in the middle of my life
I don't know whether this is right
Should I turn away, should I turn away
I'm holding back but I wanna fight
I see your face day and night
Tell me what do I do

I see pictures of you
And I keep one beside me to
You look so beautiful
You were so young
What happened was so wrong
Josie I wish I could have known you
