

The Water Well (Salvation)
By Micaela and Joely Osfield
ACMF National Songwriting Competition 2017

I follow the sound of a thirsty ground
The unattainable free, she is singing to me
The refuge in the water, a mother to a daughter
The wreckage in the ruin, the privilege to play truant

I long for the taste, a second of safe
The bruised soles of my feet, all the lines you can read
The perils of a traveler, I kiss my little brother
Hope fades into horizons
They can no longer be silent
We can no longer be silent

The water well (salvation, salvation) Please bring salvation
The water well (safe haven, safe haven) Please bring safe haven
I take a sip, feel the sweetness of her kiss
All my life wanted so much more than this
I take a sip...

I walk through the fire, I dream my desire
We drink, our faces immersed, a poisonous thirst
A dying of an ember, the burdens I remember
The voices of my comfort
They can no longer be silent
We can no longer be silent

The water well (salvation, salvation) Please bring salvation
The water well (safe haven, safe haven) Please bring safe haven
I take a sip, feel the sweetness of her kiss
All my life wanted so much more than this
I take a sip...

The water well (salvation, salvation) Please bring salvation
The water well (safe haven, safe haven) Please bring safe haven
I take a sip, feel the sweetness in her kiss
All my life wanted so much more than this
I take a sip...