

warm water – Chloe Haber

Splashing, droplets,

As much as we can it's just the ocean,

We didn't mean to swim so far from shore.

Dark blue, breathless,

Looking damn fine, not like I noticed,

Now we're both swimming down to the floor.

Cause the water's warm where ice and fire meet,

Where the sunshine meets the moon.

Yeah, the water's warm here where our heart eyes meet,

Where our heart eyes meet.

I'm drowning in warm, warm water, warm, warm water,

I can't breathe, I can't breathe in,

Warm, warm water, warm, warm water,

I can't see clearly, when you're near me.

Tidal, painless,

I see the way you're floating like you're weightless,

What's the point in trying not to sink anymore?

Sunshine, perfect,

You make me feel sane, you make me feel worth it,

This is the paradise I know I adore.

Cause the water's warm where ice and fire meet,

Where the sunshine meets the moon.

Yeah, the water's warm here where our heart eyes meet,

Where our heart eyes meet.

I'm drowning in warm, warm water, warm, warm water,

I can't breathe, I can't breathe in,
Warm, warm water, warm, warm water,
I can't see clearly, when you're near me.

Everything is in focus now
The blur is clearing
The missing pieces are finally falling into place.

Cause the water's warm where ice and fire meet,
Where the sunshine meets the moon.
Yeah, the water's warm here where our heart eyes meet,
Where our heart eyes meet.

I'm drowning in warm, warm water, warm, warm water,
I can't breathe, I can't breathe in,
Warm, warm water, warm, warm water,
I can't see clearly, when you're drowning me in,
Warm, warm water, warm, warm water,
I can't breathe, I can't breathe in,
Warm, warm water, warm, warm water,
I can't see clearly, when you're near me.
