

A Perfect World

Danny Harris, Year Six, The McDonald College

A perfect day, a perfect world
A perfect life for me
Sun's in the sky, it shines so bright
It shines so carelessly
Maybe there's something else out there
But right now I'm happy
So if you're jealous, bye
Cause the worlds collide
To make a perfect life for me
Because my life's so high
The fire burns so bright
So don't you ever go and take it away
Swing from the chandelier
We live life there, or here
And nothing's ever gonna take it away
Never gonna let it go to waste
Why does life always seem so nice?
It's a mystery
In this perfect world, a perfect day
Life is so unique
How could anyone be down
When we're living life so free?
So if you're jealous, bye
Cause the worlds collide
To make a perfect life for me
Why can't the world be perfect?
Even if it is to me
I know the world's not perfect
But we can still be free

In a perfect day
A perfect world
A perfect life for me
Ooh, yeah
