

Emotional Mirror

[Chorus] Ladies and gentlemen
This song is about how your emotions affect other people's emotions

People are like a mirror
They reflect your emotions
If you want them to be happy
You first need to be happy

You have the power,
To change how they feel
By making a choice, of what we reflect
The emotions we show have strong effects

[Verse1] I'm feeling like the pouring rain, raining sadness every where Soaking everyone into despair
A huge grey rain cloud, moping all around Depressing everyone below me

[Verse2] Now I'm a raging fire burning out of control
Sucking oxygen from the air
I need a fire fighter to put me out
So I can be calm again

[Verse3] A light soft feather floating down a gentle stream
Relaxing those who stop to watch me
Helping them to clear their minds to the bright world that I see
And the beautiful things it has to give [Verse4] I'm feeling like the sun shining down on every one

Making the whole world shine
Making Mother Nature bloom, with wonderful smells Helping their hearts glow bright

[Chorus] People are like a mirror,
They reflect your emotions.
If you want them to be happy,
you first need to be happy

you have the power,
to change how they feel
By making a choice, of what we reflect
The emotions we show. Have strong effects

[Outro] So when it comes to your emotions.
Choose how we show them, choose when we show them, choose where and what we show.
