

Bullet – By Sophie Volp

I won't be told what to do, I aint just another girl waiting in line for you

And I aint a piece in a game, just sitting around waiting for you to start to play

I don't get dressed up and do my hair just so you might think twice when you see me standing there

No I look good just for me, and I don't need no man to tell me that I'm fine and fancy free

Chorus

And I----- I'll Fly like a bullet

You tell me I can't, and just to prove you wrong I'll do it

And don't be fooled by this pretty face there's much more to it

And I----- I'll Fly like a bullet

I am wild like a flame, you can try to put me out but I won't be tamed

Can't clip my wings, and if you try, I will laugh right in your face and start to fly

I got my head in the clouds and I'm chasing my dreams, there's no way you'll bring my down

I got my voice and my own mind, when I got something to say you can't quiet a heart like mine

Chorus

And I----- I'll Fly like a bullet

You tell me I can't, and just to prove you wrong I'll do it

And don't be fooled by this pretty face there's much more to it

And I----- I'll Fly like a bullet

Bridge

All my girls, if he holds you back by being slack or tries to rule your world

You aint his toy, and if you must, leave him lying high and dry and crying in the dust

Second Chorus

And you----- can finally fly like a bullet

They'll tell you, you can't but prove them wrong and show 'em all you can do it

Don't hide behind your pretty face there's much more to it

And you----- can finally fly like a bullet, no

Don't be fooled by this pretty face there's much more to it

And I----- I'll Fly like a bullet
