

Isolated

Written by Ramika

[Verse]

Isolated, see you later, too afraid to go to school
Mum packs lunch, I thank her a bunch, she said it's cool
Don't worry son you'll be alright just remember you are strong
A tear comes rolling, down my cheek I said I am the one
I said I'm the one
The one and only one
The one that will change the world for once
Thanks to school I will change the world for once

[Chorus]

As I walked in the bullies stand there arms crossed standing by the colossal door
Suddenly grabs me by the arm gets the steel locks and
handcuffs me to the wall
Please Mr Bully please let me go
Then you grab my only lunch and throw it out the window
Then you grab my only lunch and throw it out the window

[Verse 2]

Crying out loud there's no use, start to make fun of my mum Tells everyone all these fake little lies that make everyone call me dumb
Then I think why am I alive having to deal with this all one my own
Then I remember my wonderful mum telling me I am the only strong one

[Chorus]

As I walked in the bullies stand there arms crossed standing by
the colossal door

Suddenly grabs me by the arm gets the steel locks and
handcuffs me to the wall

Please Mr Bully please let me go

Then you grab my only lunch and throw it out the window

Then you grab my only lunch and throw it out the window

My neatly packed lunch watching it go out the window

[Verse 3/Rap Verse]

Dear Mr Bully what's up brother what's happening Breaking others hearts, calling the names hurting feelings Kicking them out the door, punching hard then goes home bleeding

Poor little kid has little no other dealings

What in the worlds life have they done to you man Handcuffing to walls and throwing lunches are you mad?
Little kid has to stay hungry don't you feel bad Pick your options cause you don't look strong like that my lad

Think about your actions are they deliverable
'Cause most of then you make incomprehensible Think about your life you've come so far gonna turn it miserable

Think about it are they not or are or only considerable Yours sincerely the principle.

Isolation is not the key
Think about your actions considerably

Think about your actions considerably
'Cause isolation is not the key
