

5 Seconds - Claudia Pitts

Silver spoon in my breakfast bowl
Got my homework all under control
Jump upstairs and pull on my dress
Not even worried about my spelling test
Double check my morning routine
Gotta bring money for the canteen
Jump in the car and the seats are hot
Tie up my shoes and pull up my socks

Phone starts ringing

Bad news coming

54321

Life can change, everything becomes so strange

No one can see it coming

Then i feel my heart drumming heart drumming

54321

One more whispered conversation
Hold my breath in anticipation
Ask the doctor what's going on
From that moment my old life is gone
One more thing to worry about
I feel my courage burning out
It's been so long since things felt right
I'm in the dark can't find the light

Phone starts ringing

Bad news coming

54321

Life can change, everything becomes so strange

No one can see it coming

Then I feel my heart drumming heart drumming

In just 5 seconds your life can change

You learn who really cares

The ones who stand and hold my hand

These are the lives we share

54321

Life can change, everything becomes so strange

No one can see it coming

Then I feel my heart drumming heart drumming
