

unhealthy way (by Ruby Archer)

your embrace it lingers upon my skin, upon my skin
One day I'll reminisce, I'll remember this bittersweet sings one day I'll cry, one day I'll cry and one day I'll reminisce, I'll remember his sweet smile because I let it in to my every day, in my unhealthy way and I

and I
and I want to touch you, but is that too much for you?
and I want to love you, is that above you?
and I want to
feel
I want to feel again

your embrace it lingers, upon my back, upon my back
One day I'll reminisce, I'll remember his sweet voice because I let it in to my every day, in my unhealthy way and I

and I
and I want to touch you, but is that too much for you?
and I want to love you, is that above you?
and I want to
feel
I want to feel again
and I want to feel
oh, I want to feel again and I want to love you, is that above you? And I want to know you, am I too far below you?

and I want to touch you, but is that too much for you?
and I want to be loved

and I want to feel
I want to feel again
I want to feel
I want to feel again
