

Pick me girl

Guess I was the one who mucked up this time it's probably me to blame I let you in my life
A knife left on the counter I should've read the signs and knew
You were always breaking up the people that you knew

You're a pick me girl
Baby you'll rock their world
Make them believe all the words you've written
Have to have some hidden meaning

Thought I closed that chapter I was pretty glad Probably paranoia it's really not that bad
You act like life is just simple game
For you to claim your victims then numb the pain

You're a pick me girl
Baby you'll rock their world
Make them believe all the words you've written
Have to have some hidden meaning

Trends on the internet I see
A perfect picture of how you acted around me
Its toxic you might be insecure
Ill just wanna say goodbye
I'm so quirky different
(Shut up)
Yeah right

You're a pick me girl
Baby you'll rock their world
Make them believe all the words you've written
Have to have some hidden meaning
you tend to change the words they say

You're a pick me girl
Baby you'll rock their world
Make them believe all the words you've written
Have to have some hidden meaning

Try and find another way
If letting them down is all you know
You should just let it go
Maybe its just something you'll figure.
I think you should really figure it out

You're a pick me girl
Baby you'll rock their world
Make them believe all the words you've written
Have to have some hidden meaning

You're a pick me girl
Baby you'll rock their world
Make them believe all the words you've written
Have to have some hidden meaning
