

Out of Range

Leaving these city lights
On this night time drive
Somewhere up the coast
Missing those exit signs

Ive been gettin high
High on the morning rise
I sit an manifest
In the view of a pretty skyline

Every piece of me
Is moving with the breeze
Searching for my melody
Cause I'm like waves of the sea

I don't need nothing more
Standing out on the shore
Past life ive been there before

Now im just takin my time time
Here in this chill state of mind mind
I want to change my focus
See things I never noticed
I let the world just fall away
When im out of range

Cant reach the space im in
Horizon starts to drift
Im tryin to get lost again
And escape everthing for a little bit

Letting go of the strain on me
Cause baggage is the last thing that I need
I got this idea I can be free

Now im just takin my time time
Here in this chill state of mind mind
I want to change my focus
See things I never noticed
I let the world just fall away
When im out of range

So im heading down
A one way road
Don't know the plan
Or where im gunna go

There's something about the state of unknown yer
I found space for liberty
Some kind of inner peace
No need to try and find me

Leaving these city lights
On this night time drive
Somewhere up the coast
Missing those exit signs

Ive been gettin high
